

IMMORTALITY OF THE SOUL

1. What is the soul?

Soul is an incarnate spirit.

- The Spirits' Book, Allan Kardec, Q&A 134

2. What is the definition of spirit?

Spirits are the intelligent beings of Creation.

- The Spirits' Book, Allan Kardec, Q&A 76-77

- The existence of spirits has no end.
- Spirits can be imagined as a flame, an ethereal spark.
- Whenever an intent thought is, that is also where the spirit is.
- Each spirit is indivisible.
- The spirit can extend its thoughts in all directions.

3. What is our composition?

Incarnate Spirit

Discarnate Spirit

4. What is perispirit?

It is a semi-material substance that envelops the spirit.

- It connects matter and spirit.
- It is derived from the cosmic fluid present in each planet.
- It can become visible and even palpable to us in dreams and even when we are awake.
- It records all of our thoughts, feelings and actions.

- The Spirits' Book, Allan Kardec, Q&A 93-94

5. What is the destiny of spirits?

- The Spirits' Book, Allan Kardec, Q&A 101, 107, 112

6. How do spirits progress?

Through incarnation!

- ♦ Incarnation is the means through which spirits become perfect.
- It is a process of learning and purification through the accumulation of experiences.
- Incarnation allows spirits to perform their proper share in the work of Creation.

- The Spirits' Book, Allan Kardec, Q&A 132-133

7. How does incarnation happen?

- The Spirits' Book by Allan Kardec & Genesis by Allan Kardec

8. How do spirits make the transition back into the spirit realm?

Extinction of Organic Life → Rupture of Fluidic Link → Separation of soul and body

- Heaven and Hell, Allan Kardec, p. 206

9. What happens after death?

"After death, we are what we made of ourselves in places that are best-suited for recovery, and for opportunities of service we might prove capable of doing."

- "Nosso Lar: A Spiritual Home", Andre Lutz/Francisco Xavier, Ch. 9

10. What is the spirit realm like?

"The spirit-world is like a great city where individuals of all ranks and conditions see and meet each other... As in a city, circles are formed by similarities in tastes, and good and bad spirits share the same space without having to interact."

- The Spirits' Book, Allan Kardec, Q&A 278
